 Say this about that, by that I mean Honkey Tonk comics.
 Don't, I repeat don't buy this comic. Let me make myself perfectly clear, I. will be comming out with a much better comic with such farces
 as the Paris Peace Talks, the draft lottery, unilateral withdrawal, the A.B.N. , Ecology Action, and two special features of slapstick humor, the political autobiographies of Spiro Agnew and Ronald Reagan. Look for the 1st groovy issue at your

Pamela Twit

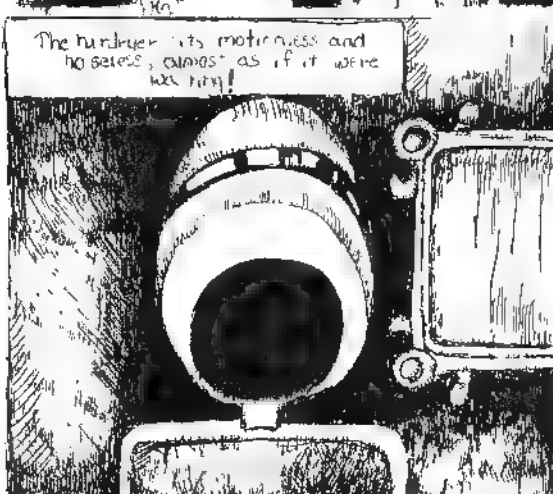

19200310

Pamela gives herself a final going over as she prepares herself to leave for Piers Beauty Salon little realizing that today is an ill fated day for her.

After her hair is washed and set, Pamela barks a final order to Pierre, allowing him to leave the room.

Yes
Madam

Thankyou that will be all Pierre
I don't wish to be disturbed.

Pamela dozes off, secure in her own self-indulgent little world, unaware of the evil that lurks with her in the room.

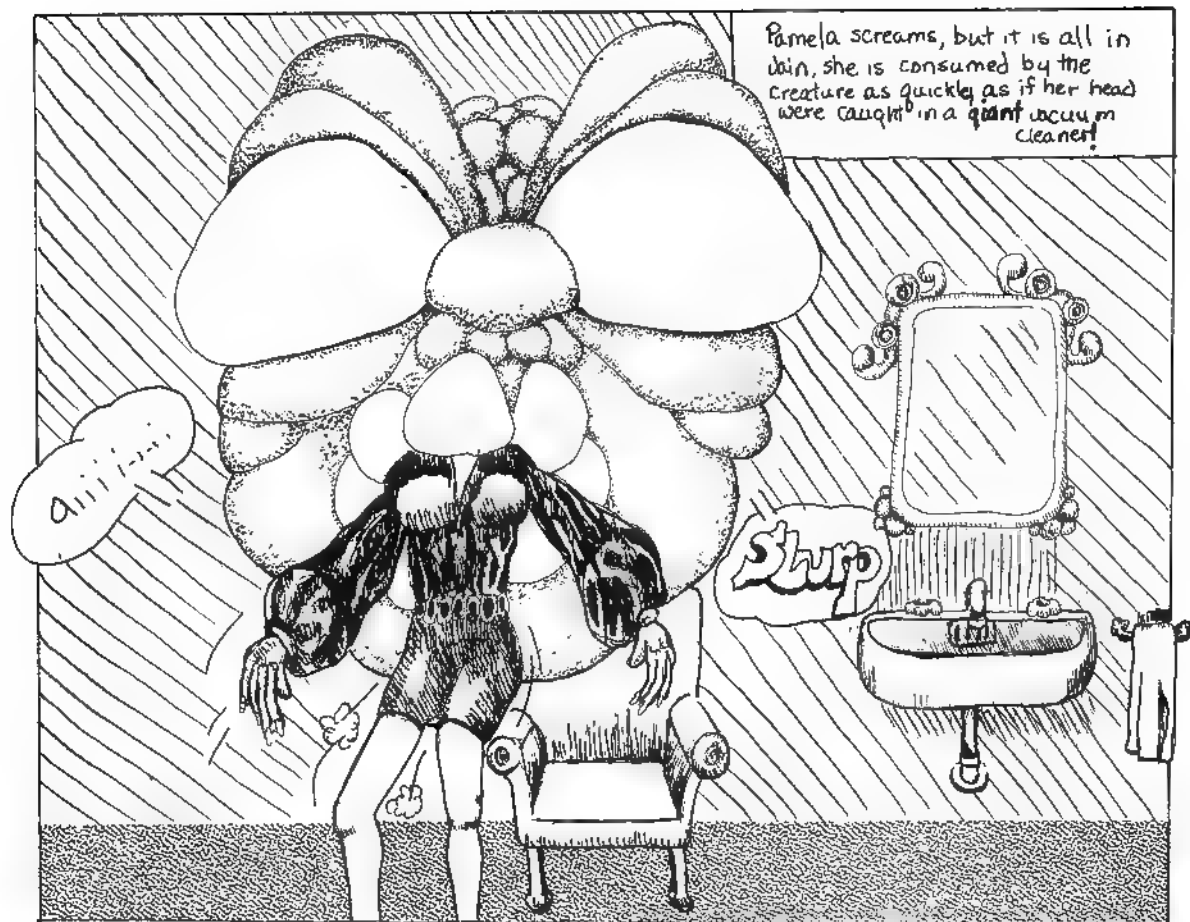

Whats happening?

A strange transformation takes place as the inconspicuous hairdryer becomes a hunger raved creature.

Pamela screams, but it is all in vain, she is consumed by the creature as quickly as if her head were caught in a giant vacuum cleaner!

In a matter of minutes Pamela is reduced to a bloody pulp!

Geiser 70-

As the curtain rises, we find our hero - Jesus - strolling through the country side in hope of selling some of his ridiculous religious relics.

As he rounds a corner, he runs into a most amiable birth defect.

Jesus moves right into the old sales pitch

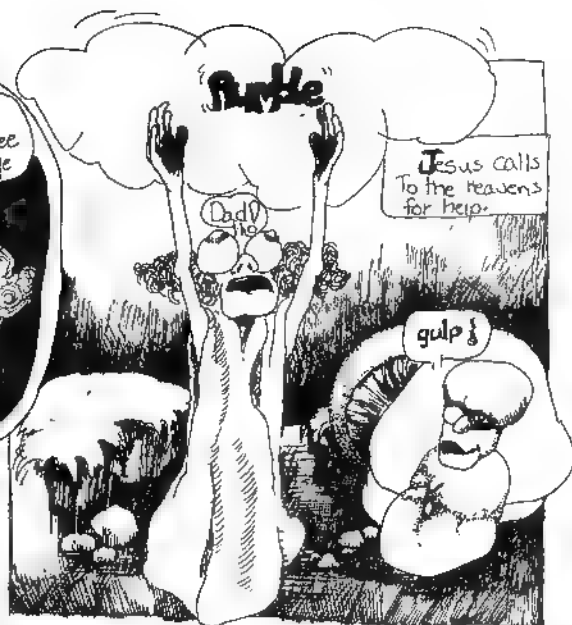

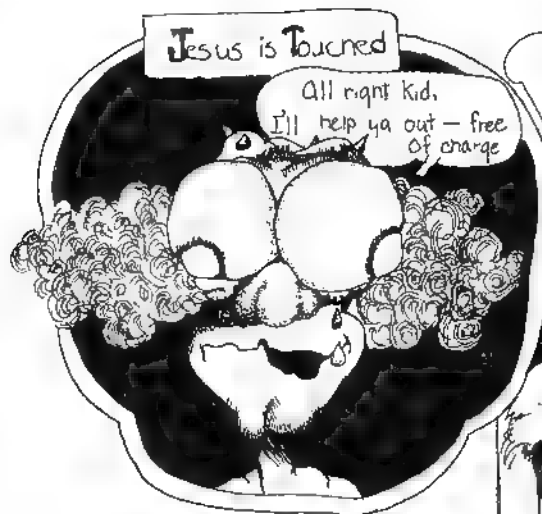

Yipe!

Wanta buy a relic kid? guaranteed to get ya into that great freak show in the sky.

Hi there.

Jesus I just wanta

As he rounds a hairpin turn,

itself in the form of a 5

Yeeek

No more then 100 yards from where he had been patiently waiting for 20 years, Olé second base is pan caked.

Jesus happens on the rather messy scene.
